

MODULE 9

Week One

Suffixes (-ful, -y, -ly, -er, -or)

Suffixes are word parts added to the end of words. This week, we are going to be looking at words with -ful, -y, -ly, -er, -or as suffixes. Some of these words can be found below. Notice how, once adding the suffix, the spellings of the word may change as well.

Example Words

-ful

play → playful

-ly

deep → deeply

-or

direct → director

Week Two

Words with ough and augh

In words with ough, the letters ou may sound like a long /o/ as in tone, short /u/ as in run, /aw/ as in saw, /ow/ as in town, or /oo/ as in moon. In words with augh, the letters au may sound like /a/ as in map, or /aw/ as in saw. In words with these patterns, the gh may be silent or make the /f/ sound as in for.

Example Words

ough

tough

dough

augh

caught

laugh

Week Three

Words with /j/ and /s/

The letter g often stands for the /j/ sound when it's followed by e, i, or y. The letter c often stands for the /s/ sound when it is followed by e, i, or y.
